

OAKLAND COMMUNITY COLLEGE, AUBURN HILLS, MICHIGAN PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Oakland Community College (OCC) empowers excellence by providing high skill, in-demand robust occupational programs, certificates and state-of-the-art training courses and services for companies big and small taught by dedicated, hands-on faculty that use innovation to turn potential into professional; including Related Theoretical Instruction (RTI) towards Apprenticeship, and

Whereas, Registered Apprenticeships are an earn-while-you-learn model that ensures both a structured educational setting and on-the-job training that prepares Apprentices for a secure, high paying and highly technical career, and

OCC recognizes that skilled trades are professional careers that help our economy develop and grow and that continuing effective Registered Apprenticeships is a means to assist business and industry with a workforce solution for building, recruiting and retaining a talented and diverse labor pool, and

Whereas, Apprentices are celebrated for their time management and persistence both on-the-job and in the classroom, and

Whereas, Registered Apprentices earn a national, portable industry-recognized credential upon program completion that is of economic value, leading to career mobility and lifelong learning.

Now, therefore, we Oakland Community College do hear by proclaim the week of November 15-21, 2021 as National Registered Apprenticeship Week in Michigan.

Peter Provenzano, Jr.

Peter Provenzano, Jr., Chancellor

Oct. 27, 2021